KULP COAT OF ARMS
1578

Today we are living in a troubled world; envy, jealousy and hatred among peoples and nations. The times are perilous and we know not what the morrow will bring forth.

May we recall the "Faith of Our Fathers" and pray to the "God of Peace" for strength and guidance as we commit ourselves to His care.

OUR GUEST SPEAKER

REV. W. HAMILTON AULENBACH

A quarter of a century filled with work in religious educational fields, is the record of our distinguished speaker, Rev. W. Hamilton Aulenbach, beginning with his graduation from the Philadelphia Divinity School in 1925.

In May 1949, the Philadelphia born and educated rector of Christ Church and St. Michael's (Episcopal) Germantown, also became rector of St. Nathanael's Church, Philadelphia; this without compensation to help a church in the industrial area which had financial trouble.

A World War I Navy Veteran and active during World War II in various ways, Rev. Aulenbach was twice cited for work in War Bond Treasury drives. Was air raid Warden, also Philadelphia County American Legion Chaplain, 1939-1940.

Rev. Aulenbach's interest in young people is evident from his numerous Annual Spring Commencement addresses and long-time activity in the Boy Scout Movement and the Y. M. C. A.

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

Rev. 21:4

OUR GUEST SINGERS

For several years the Lansdale Community Chorus has supplied this gathering with its fine singing. These people sang themselves into the hearts of those in attendance at these reunions to the extent that their reappearance on our program was again requested. We welcome Mr. C. Richard Snyder, the director, and every member of the chorus to our gathering today.

Reunion Day Song

Tune—"Is This the Crowning Day?"

1.

Happy-reunion day,
Glad day! Glad day!
God's own redeeming love
Sheds radiant light from above
In welcome to all today.

Chorus

Glad day! Glad day!
This is reunion day;
Our ancestors came to this free
land,
For truth and right they deigned to stand;
Glad day! Glad day!
This is reunion day.

2.

Friendly-reunion day,
Glad day! Glad day!
As we together meet;
Friendship and fellowship sweet
Are mingled with love today.

Chorus

3.

Glorious-reunion day,
Glad day! Glad day!
May we the past review;
Ancestors loyal and true,
Their mem-ries live on today.

Chorus

Sacred-reunion day,
Glad day! Glad day!
May the "Kulp" family live;
Honor and praise e'er to give
To "Him" who reigns on for aye.

Chorus

Arranged by W. K. Schlotterer, 1938.

Nun danket alle Gott

Now thank we all our God
With heart and hands and voices,
Who wondrous things hath done,
In Whom His world rejoices;
Who, from our mother's arms,
Hath blessed us on our way
With countless gifts of love,
And still is ours today.

2.

O may this bounteous God
Through all our life be near us,
With ever joyful hearts
And blessed peace to cheer us;
And keep us in His grace,
And guide us when perplexed
And free us from all ills
In this world and the next.

3.

All praise and thanks to God
The Father now is given,
The Son and Him who reigns
With Them in Highest heaven:
The One Eternal God
Whom earth and heaven adore;
For thus it was is now,
And shall be evermore.

Martin Rinkhart, 1648.
