

SIXTY-THIRD ANNUAL REUNION

Kolb-Kulp-Culp Family

GOSCHENHOPPEN PARK

EAST GREENVILLE, PA

Sunday, June 10, 1990

William Kulp (1811-1880) was the son of Henry Kulp of Lower Salford Township. Henry was a blue dyer by occupation but also engaged in the trades of wood-working, blacksmithing and farming. In 1802, he bought a farm near the corner of Kulp Road and Sunneytown Pike at Harleysville. He married Susanna Moyer and fathered several children, one of whom was William.

William first appears in the 1834 Lower Salford tax records as a singleman. Apparently this lifestyle suited him for he remained a bachelor for many years. In 1850, his father died and William bought the family farm. He shared this residence with his 75-year-old mother and tax records show his occupation as clock and watchmaker, jeweler and farmer.

William's mother died in 1860 and shortly thereafter he married Mary Fredrick, a young maid-servant of the household. They had four daughters and a son. He is believed to be a cousin to clockmaker Jacob D. Moyer and also related to clockmaker Jacob Hagey, Jr. He is buried at Lower Salford Mennonite Church.

Our Speaker

MR. BRUCE R. FORMAN

Mr. Bruce Forman is a mechanical engineer at Bethlehem Steel and an apprenticed clockmaker. He is a member of the American Watchmakers Institute and the National Association of Watch and Clock Collectors. He has published many technical and historical articles concerning clocks and clockmaking. His most recent publication was a monograph documenting the clockmakers and clocks contained in the collections of the Historical Society of Montgomery County.

Mr. Forman is currently writing a book about the more than one hundred clockmakers who worked in Montgomery County before 1850. He is systematically photographing examples of clocks made in this county and uses a home computer to document his research.

We gratefully thank Robert Wenger, once again, for lending, installing, and operating the fine sound amplification equipment used during this reunion.

“How Great Thou Art”

1.
O Lord my God, when I in awesome wonder
Consider all the worlds Thy hands have made,
I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder,
Thy pow’r thro’out the universe displayed.

Refrain
Then sings my soul my Savior God, to Thee;
How great Thou art, How great Thou art!
Then sings my soul, my Savior God, to Thee;
How great Thou art, How great Thou art!

When thro’ the woods and forest glades
I wander and hear the birds sing sweetly
in the trees,
When I look down from lofty
mountain grandeur,
And hear the brook and feel the gentle breeze.

Refrain.

My country ’tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;

America

Reunion Day Song

Tune — “Is This The Crowning Day?”

1.
Happy-reunion day,
Glad day! Glad day!
God’s own redeeming love;
Sheds radiant light from above
In welcome to all today.

— Chorus —
Glad day! Glad day!
This is reunion day;
Our ancestors came to this free land,
For truth and right
they deigned to stand;
Glad day! Glad day!
This is reunion day.

4.
Sacred-reunion day,
Glad day! Glad day!
May the “Kulp” family live,
Honor and praise e’er to give
To “Him” who reigns on for aye.

— Chorus —

Arranged by W. K. Schlotterer, 1938.

Land where my fathers died
Land of the Pilgrim’s pride,
From every mountain side,
Let freedom ring.

Kolb-Kulp-Culp Family and Friends:

We extend an invitation to you to attend our Sixty-Third Year of Annual Reunions.

We are looking forward to you sharing our "groaning board" with us again, each family to bring a sufficient quantity of two foods for their own family. The beverages will be provided by the Committee. Lunch will be from 1:00 to 2:30 p.m.

Abe Hunsicker and Joel Alderfer of the History Committee will be available to assist you with your genealogical questions.

You will notice on our program that we have updated the name of East Greenville Park to Goschenhoppen Park, East Greenville, Pa. and have also included a map to aid members to locate the site of the Reunion.

A reprint of the "Kulp Family Book" by Daniel K. Cassel, 1895, is in the process of being completed through the courtesy of Mr. Glenn Landis of 633 Fairview Rd., Swarthmore, Pa. 19081. It is possible the books will be available at the Reunion. Glenn Landis will be present to sell the books and to receive orders.

We also have copies of the "Kulp Family Book" available containing some history and programs of all the Reunions. The cost is $25.00 plus $2.00 postage. Requests for the book can be sent to the secretary.

We thank you sincerely for your past generosity. Your continued interest and financial support to cover the rising expenses have made it possible for the Association to furnish speakers, entertainment and issue an annual folder.

Please notify us of any change of address. If a family member, who was a Kulp, has died recently, and was not listed on our In Memoriam page, please send us the pertinent data.

With our best wishes, and hopefully we will see you on June 10th.

Cordially,
Ruth K. Oberholtzer, Secretary
Kolb-Kulp-Culp Family Association
